Šukla Yajur Veda

Hail Hari

That is Fullness, this is Fullness,
Fullness comes from Fullness
When Fullness is taken out of
Fullness,
What remains is Fullness.

Omn Peace Peace Peace

1. Eešvara pervades all this,
Whatever that moves in this world,
Through renunciation protect yourself,
Do not covet, for whose is this wealth?

2. Performing works in this way here,
You may hope to live a hundred years,
There is no way other than this,
Such works do not bind the men.

3. There are the demoniac worlds
Filled with blind darkness;
Those who let the self down,
Enter after death into such worlds.

4. One and unmoving, faster than the mind,
Reaching objects even before the senses,
Remaining still, it outstrips all,
In it the Mātariśvan (the Air) creates all activity.

5. Tad ejati tan naijati
Tad doore tad-vad antike |
Tad antarasya sarvasya
Tad u sarvasyaṣya bāhyatah ||

6. Yas tu sarvaṇi bhootāny-
Ātmany-evānupaśyati |
Sarva bhooteshu chātmanamn
Tato na vijugupsate ||

7. Yasmin sarvaṇi bhootāni
Ātmaivābhood vijānatah |
Tatra ko mohah kah śokah
Ekatvam anupaśyatah ||

8. Sa paryāgach çhukram akāyam Avraṇam asnāvīramn śuddham apāpaviddham |
Kavir maneeshee paribhooh svayambhoor
Yāthātathyato'rthān
Vyadadhāch çhāṣvateebhyah
samābhyah ||

9. Andhamn tamah praviṣanti
Ye'vidyām upāstate |
Tato bhooya iva te tamo
Ya u vidyāyāmn ratāh ||

10. Anyad evāhur vidyayā,
Anyad evāhur avidyayā |
Iti śuśrūma dheerāṇāmn
Ye nas tad vichachakshire ||

11. Vidyāmn chāvidyāmn cha
Yas tad vedobhayāmn saha |
Avidyayā mptyumn teertvā

5. It moves and it moves not,
It is far and yet it is near,
It is within all this,
And it is also outside all.

6. Whoso sees
All the beings in the self,
And the self in all beings,
He is not disillusioned anymore.

7. In whom all beings
Become the Self on knowing,
Where is delusion and sorrow,
When one sees the oneness?

8. He pervades all, bright and incorporeal, Invulnerable, sinewless, pure, and unblemished,
All-seeing, all-knowing,
all-encompassing, and self-existent,
Distributing rewards for actions As arranged according to the permanent years.

9. Into blind darkness do they enter,
Who adore the worldly knowledge,
Into greater darkness, as if, they enter
Who revel in the heavenly knowledge.

10. Other they say than the knowledge of the heaven,
Other they say than the knowledge of the world,
Thus we have heard from the great
seers,
Who have explained That to us.

11. The knowledge of the heaven and the knowledge of the world,
Whoso knows them put together,

Vidyayāṁptam aśnute ||

Through the worldly knowledge crosses over the dreary existence, And attains immortality through the knowledge of the heaven.

12. Andhamn tamah praviṣanti
Ye'sambhootim upāṣate |
Tato bhooya iva te tamō
Ya u sambhootyāmn ratāḥ ||

12. Into blind darkness do they enter,
Who worship the unmanifest,
Into greater darkness do they enter
Who revel in the manifest.

13. Anyad evāhuh sambhavād
Anyad evāhur asambhavāt |
Iti śuśrūma dheerāṇāmn
Ye nas tad vichachakshire ||

13. Other they say than the real,
Other they say than the unreal,
Thus we have heard from the great
seers,
Who have explained That to us.

14. Sambhootimn cha vināśāmn cha
Yas tad vedobhayāmn saha |
Vināśena mṛtyumn teertvā
Sambhootyāṁptam aśnute ||

14. The real and the perishable,
Whoso knows them put together,
He crosses over death through the perishable, and attains the Imperishable through the real.

15. Hiraṇmayeṇa pātreṇa
Satyasyāpi hitāmn mukham |
Tat tvāmn Pooshann apāṇṛṇu
Satya dharmāya dṛṣṭaye ||

15. The face of the Self Is covered with a golden disk;
Remove that disk, O Sun,
So that I, the follower of truth,
May behold it.

16. Pooshann ekarshe Yama Soorya Prājāpatya vyooḥa raśmeen samooḥa
tejah |
Yat te roopāmn kalyāṇa-tamāmn tat
Te paśyāmi
Yo'sāv asow purushah so'ham asmi ||

16. O Nourisher, Seer, Controller, O Sun, the son of the Lord of Creation,
Withhold your rays and withdraw your radiance,
So that I may see your splendid form,
I am verily that Person who is within you.

17. Vāyur anilam āṁptam
Athethāmn bhasmāntāmn śareeram |
Omn Krato smara kṛtāmn smara,
Omn Krato smara kṛtāmn smara ||

17. When my breath joins the immortal breath,
When my body is burnt to ashes,
O Doer, remember my past deeds,
O Doer, remember my past deeds.

18. Agne naya supathā rāye
Asmān viśvāni deva vayunāni

Poorṇam adah poorṇam idamn
Poorṇāt poorṇam udachyate |
Poorṇasya poorṇam ādāya
Poorṇam evāvaśishyate ||

Omn śantih śantih śantih

18. O Fire, lead us by the good path to our goals,
O God, who knows all the paths,
Deliver us from the evil path,
We offer our salutations to you.

That is Fullness, this is Fullness,
Fullness comes from Fullness
When Fullness is taken out of
Fullness,
What remains is Fullness.
