Meru Mahat: Meru Śrutih
1. The Dance Song on the Swan Lake
Composed by Aniruddha

Lead us from the unreal to the Real,
Lead us from darkness to light,
Lead us from death to immortality.

1. Oh the Red-nosed Swan making inaudible sound,
With an unknown form sportively
you are mounted on the sweet sound, Well-born, fragrant, and Royal Beauty,
You are the whirler of the animalistic
humans from one world to another in the three worlds.

2. By all means, and everywhere you have the form of Sāvitree, By yourself alone you are the sole witness,
The greatest swan coming out of the lake in the matter of causing unification,
You are the whirler of the animalistic
humans from one world to another in
the three worlds.

3. You are the blissful resident in the ocean of the mundane existence, You are the greatest swan deeply involved in bringing the glorious
unification,
The most powerful swan in effecting

You are the whirler of the animalistic
humans from one world to another in
the three worlds.

4. Surrounded by the mystic power you are the creator of the web of fascination,
You are the producer of the splendor of the hidden thread-like Self,
You are Gowtamee (The name of a Sāman), the ruler
Of the sweetness, and the three strands of the nature,
You are the whirler of the animalistic
humans from one world to another in
the three worlds.

5. One who conducts herself in the form of a person,
In her Brāhmee form, she has the nature of the One without a second, You are the root cause having your abode in the divine nature,
You are the whirler of the animalistic
humans from one world to another in
the three worlds.

6. You are the reputed swan known as the King-Swan,
You have the face with seven tongues
of flame,
You are the controller of the five vital airs,
By making the sound Hamnsa, Hamnsa, you bring inspiration to the beings always,
You are the whirler of the animalistic
humans from one world to another in
the three worlds.

passionate body of the towering mountain,
The Grantor of the fruit of the most meritorious deeds,
The Ruler of the pedestal situated in the altar of the shepherds,
You are the whirler of the animalistic
humans from one world to another in
the three worlds.

8. You are the Beautiful woman dedicated to making the

You are the glory of the dawn in the form of oneness,
You are the happy primary set consisting of twenty-four principles, You are whirler of the animalistic
humans from one world to another in
the three worlds.

9. He, whoever person, reads this Hamnsa Sarovara Geeta written by Aniruddha, Becomes released from all sins and goes to the World of the Swan without any doubt.
